BECAUSE RESULTS MATTER

Whitehall America is a full-service national investigation and consulting firm. We serve a broad spectrum of clients from individuals, small to mid-size corporations, Fortune 500 companies, government, respected law firms and insurance companies through virtually every line of business.

CONFIDENCE IN WHITEHALL AMERICA? Nothing can replace the passion for a well executed investigation. Though there are a number of differentiators to ensure your success, it essentially comes down to experience, accountability and commitment.

EXPERIENCE: Our history dates back to 1984 as our founding owner began servicing corporate and insurance clientele with professional investigations nationally in Canada and then across North America. In tandem with experience is our desire to create value for each of our clients and the work they entrust us with.

ACCOUNTABILITY: We take this responsibility very seriously at Whitehall America; adhering to time service constraints, quality reporting and ensuring ongoing feedback to our staff. Accountability is an integral part of our firm and you shouldn't expect any less. Doing so is not an easy feat but knowing that our success stems from that very word means wonders to our clients and their end product. It is something we are committed to on each assignment.

COMMITMENT: Each task we perform is an investment in our clients, as much as they are investing in us to handle each assignment with utmost professionalism and integrity. When Whitehall America goes to work for you, our expectation is for a long term relationship. Together with commitment is our genuine passion to investigate, to reach a conclusion that matters and is relevant to your decision making.

Whitehall America has charted a course of excellence, thus earning the reputation as a premier investigation agency built on a commitment and consistent focus on service and results.
